On Wednesdays, we focus on our foundation—the first three steps of A.A.'s 12-Step program, which help us early in our recovery to construct what the Big Book describes as “the keystone of the new and triumphant arch through which we passed to freedom.” Each week, we invite a speaker to share for up to 10 minutes on these three (3) steps. Today, _____ has kindly offered to share. [AFTER SPEAKER]^{S2} Now we shall open it up for shares on these steps: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We admitted we were powerless over alcohol — that our lives had become unmanageable. 2. Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity. 3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.

On Thursdays, we read from the 'Big Book,' 'Alcoholics Anonymous,' from which our fellowship gained its name. As the primary text of the A.A. program, we find it an invaluable resource and guide for ongoing study. Participants will now read a paragraph or two before saying "pass." Please hold all remarks until the end of the reading. We shall stop reading in time for sharing afterward. Who would like to begin?
